DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- Group I, claim(s) 1-30, drawn to a method for treating industrial wastewater.
- Group II, claim(s) 31-40, drawn to an apparatus for treating water.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of the invention is a wastewater treatment process involving increasing the pH, adding precipitating agents, decreasing the pH, precipitating solids, and then separating solids from the waste water, however, this special technical feature does not offer contribution over the prior art. Horvath (USP 4,049,545) discloses a method of treating industrial waste water including steps of adding a coagulant aid, adjusting the pH to be more basic, adding precipitating agents, lowering the pH, precipitating solids, and then separating the precipitated solids (Abstract).

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- Species A-1, introducing ferromagnetic powder before the basic coagulant, see P11/L28-P12/L2.
- Species A-2, introducing ferromagnetic powder at the same time as the basic coagulant, see P12/L3-4.
- Species B-1, adding a second oxidizer before flocculation, see P12/L28-P13/L4.
- Species B-2, adding a second oxidizer after flocculation, see P13/L22-24.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species (A1 and B1 or A2 and B1 or A2 and B2 or A1 and B2) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of the invention is a wastewater treatment process involving increasing the pH, adding precipitating agents, decreasing the pH, precipitating solids, and then separating solids from the waste water, however, this special technical feature does not offer contribution over the prior art. Horvath (USP 4,049,545) discloses a method of treating industrial waste water including steps of adding a coagulant aid, adjusting the pH to be more basic, adding precipitating agents, lowering the pH, precipitating solids, and then separating the precipitated solids (Abstract).

5. A telephone call was made to Sheridan Neimark on 12/31/2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
